International workshop

Rethinking Compulsory Voting

Saturday 8 December 2018
Geneva, Uni-Mail, M4276

8:45   Arrival of participants; coffee and tea

9:15   Opening remarks: Nenad Stojanović (U de Genève, organisor)

9:30   Lachlan Umbers (U of New South Wales): "Partisanship, compulsory voting, and the right not to vote"

9:50   Chiara Destri (Goethe-U., Frankfurt): "The act of voting"

10:10   Comments by Matteo Bonotti and discussion

10:50   Break

11:10   Keynote speech 1: Anthoula Malkopoulou (Uppsala U):
        "Compulsory voting, equal representation and the threat of populism"

11:40   Discussion

12:00   Lunch break

13:00   Keynote speech 2: Matteo Bonotti (Monash U):
        "Compulsory voting and partisanship"

13:30   Discussion

13:50	Andrei Poama (Leiden U): "Making offenders vote: democratic expressivism and compulsory criminal voting"
14:10	Presentation by Miljan Vasić (U of Belgrade): "Condorcet's Jury Theorem and compulsory voting"
14:30	Comments by Nenad Stojanović and discussion
15:10	Break
15:30	Keynote speech 3: Annabelle Lever (Sciences Po, Paris): "What is the alternative to compulsory voting? Some reflections on a democratic challenge"
16.00	Discussion
16:20	Concluding remarks (all)
17:00	End of the workshop

Registration is free but places are limited for catering purposes.

If you would like to registe please contact, before Thursday 6 December, Nenad Stojanović, Département de science politique et relations internationales & Institut d'études de la citoyenneté (InCite), Université de Genève (nenad.stojanovic@unige.ch; 0041765585541).

v. 2.12.18/ns