

From 22 to 26 June 2026
At the University of Geneva, Unimail

COURSE LEADERS

Myriam Radhouane, Assistant Professor, ESG Lab, University of Geneva

TARGET AUDIENCE

Bachelor's, Master's, and Ph.D. students, as well as young professionals interested in Education in Emergencies (EIE) as a field of humanitarian action and research.

TUITION FEES

Junior professionals: CHF 1,100

External students: CHF 900

UNIGE students: CHF 250

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course explores Education in Emergencies (EIE), an essential field at the intersection of educational sciences and humanitarian action. Aligned with SDG 4 (Quality Education), it addresses the critical need for education during conflicts, crises, and climate disasters, which impact many regions globally.

Participants will gain a comprehensive understanding of EIE's role, methods, and challenges through lectures from experts in academia and international organizations.

Learning Goals:

- Trace the development of EIE.
- Apply key concepts and frameworks.
- Examine major challenges and research insights.

This one-week summer school offers a unique blend of theory and practice, bridging academic research with humanitarian action.

LEARN MORE

