

Leadership for Sustainability Transition

From 15 to 19 June 2026
At the University of Geneva

“Leaving with sharper tools, tougher questions, and a clearer sense of the leader I want to become.”

COURSE LEADERS

Dr. Alexandre Hedjazi, Institute for Environmental Sciences, University of Geneva

Dr. Matteo Tarantino, Department of Communication and Performing Arts,
Catholic University of Milan

TARGET AUDIENCE

Bachelor's and Master's students, PhD candidates, as well as junior professionals from all walks of life who are interested in sustainability transition.

TUITION FEES

Junior professionals: CHF 1,100

External students: CHF 900

UNIGE students: CHF 250

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Gain the hard and soft skills needed to drive sustainable change at local, national, and global levels. This workshop equips you with tools, methodologies, and insights to refine your vision and inspire others.

1. Design sustainability transitions at various levels.
2. Dive into self-leadership skills and discover innovative strategies like Nature-Based Solutions.
3. Master sustainability data management and stakeholder interactions, enhancing your transformative communication abilities.
4. Benefit from insights shared by guest experts from UN and other International Organisations, and network with professionals in the field.
5. Elevate your impact in the sustainability sector with this comprehensive workshop.

LEARN MORE

More here