*The Suitability Test and the European Convention on Human Rights :
Means-Ends Rationality of Rights
Limitations in Counterterrorism*

JEUDI 20 AOÛT 2026

14H - SALLE 3050 - UNI MAIL

This thesis develops a model of the suitability test – whether a rights-limiting measure advances its aim – under the European Convention on Human Rights. It assesses rational connection by reference to expected value, addresses over- and underinclusive measures, and examines the Court's use of means-ends analysis in counterterrorism.

Jury : Prof. Janneke GERARDS, Université de Utrecht, Pays-Bas, Prof. Daniel MOECKLI, Université de Zurich, Prof. Maya HERTIG, Prof. Gloria GAGGIOLI (directrice de thèse), sous la présidence du Prof. Alexandre FLÜCKIGER, doyen de la Faculté de droit.
