DISCUSSING THE EMERGING RESEARCH TRENDS
IN THE FIELD OF BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Geneva, November 26, 2017 – 4.30-6.30 pm
Uni Carl Vogt, 66, Boulevard Carl-Vogt (Room 3, ground floor)
(Tram 15, bus stop: Uni Mail)

AGENDA

• Welcome, introduction and overview of the co-conveners’ activities:
  Mara Tignino, Coordinating Committee ESIL IG on International Business and Human Rights; University of Geneva;
  Representative of BHRight Initiative (TBC);
  Marta Bordignon, Coordinating Committee ESIL IG on International Business and Human Rights; Human Rights International Corner (HRIC).

• Update on the individual or collective researches conducted by the participants.
  o Antonella Angelini, University of Geneva

• Proposal for a joint edited volume collecting the contributions of the two ESIL IG workshops held in Riga (2016) and Naples (2017).

• Brainstorming for a possible joint event to be organized in 2018 by ESIL IG on International Business and Human Rights and the BHRight Initiative.