Genève prend aujourd'hui une nouvelle place dans les débats internationaux sur les drogues. La Drug Policy Week veut mettre en réseau les acteurs internationaux et locaux concernés et promouvoir de nouvelles synergies. Venez participer à cette opportunité unique de discuter, de débattre et de partager des expériences avec :

- Une douzaine de rendez-vous différents, autour de conférences, débats, projections de films et visites proposés gratuitement et ouverts au public,
- Une organisation multisites à Genève, en anglais et en français.
- De nombreuses thématiques telles que les conflits, l'accès aux médicaments, le genre, la santé, les droits humains et les objectifs de développement durable.

Geneva is now occupying a new place in the international debate on drugs. The Drug Policy Week aims to connect relevant international and local actors with each other and to promote new synergies between them.

Come take advantage of this unique opportunity to discuss, debate and share experiences with:

- A dozen meetings made up of conferences, debates, film screenings and visits offered free of charge and open to the general public;
- A multi-site organisation throughout Geneva, in English and French;
- Many different topics such as conflicts, access to medicines, gender, health, human rights and the sustainable development goals.
